

The Burns Supper will be a sell out on 27th January 2004

Those who have already booked can look forward to an evening packed with the tradition of Burns, including the Haggis, specially imported from Scotland for the Burns Suppers, a super buffet meal including wine and whisky and traditional entertainment – piper, dancing, singing and everything you would expect of a Burns Supper – and all for the price of 2500 Ft. At this moment there are just a handful of places left so you will have to book very quickly. Please contact Steve Jones stevejones@axelero.hu or mobile 06 30 261 7145 for further information.

Robert Burns

The event takes place at the Scottish Mission, Vörösmarty u. 51 (Little underground to Vörösmarty utca), on Tuesday 27th January at 7pm. The dress code is smart or traditional. We look forward to seeing you there ready to sing and dance the night away.

Thank you to the Hungarian Scottish Society

The Hungarian Scottish Society has once again stepped in to help us to put on the Burns Supper. We are very grateful to Magyar Zoltán and the committee of the Society for continuing to support this event. By providing the Haggis and a small grant they allow us to offer the event at a price which is affordable. We will welcome Zoltán and other members of the Society at the event.

Public Speaking Competition

“A Borderless World”

In the 19th edition we told readers that the theme for the 2004 International Public Speaking Competition is “A Borderless World”.

Due to the generosity of British Airways, who has provided two flights to London, the winner will be able to take part in the International Final in London on Friday 14th May 2004. All of the rules remain the same as last year and a very brief summary of important rules can be found on the web site www.Hunenglish.net, (click on Diary Dates, then Public Speaking Competition). Full information can be found on the ESU web site www.esu.org. The venue for the International Final is the HQ of the English-Speaking Union Dartmouth House, 37 Charles Street, London W1J 5ED

National Final 16th April 2004

British Embassy, Budapest

Mr. John Nichols

The date set for the National Final in Hungary is Friday 16th April. There will be a jury of native English speakers including a guest from London who has been invited by the Ambassador Mr. John Nichols. The local area competitions, which should be organised by local groups, will need to be held before the 31st March.

We are very pleased to say that both MacMillan and

Oxford University Press have offered to assist us and will provide both prizes and other support. If you have an OUP or MacMillan representative in your area ask them to take part.

We still have to cover other expenses for the trip to London and would welcome assistance from any person or organisation who is willing to help.

Picture Gallery: Folk Night 6th Jan

The above photo was taken at the Singlish Folk evening at the Hauer on the 6th January, which was a very successful event. Half of those attending were new to the evening. Though the evening is based on Folk Music, there is time to discuss the issues which arise through the songs and other issues too.

Future Event – 17th February

'Off the Tourist Track' David A. Hill

This will be a discussion about some bits of Britain you seldom see combined with a slide presentation. David Hill will be familiar to many of you through his writing and publishing. (Hauer 6pm – 8pm)
